

University of Central Lancashire

Legal Practice Course provider institutional profile

Please note: The information contained in this institutional profile is supplied by the University of Central Lancashire; it is not endorsed by the Solicitors Regulation Authority (SRA).

General information

The School of Law at the University of Central Lancashire offers a wide range of undergraduate and postgraduate programmes, including the full-time Legal Practice Course (LPC), which has been offered since 1994. LPC provision was graded as 'very good' during the last full assessment visit, in 2002.

Course fee	Full time – £6,350 (including manuals) Part time – £3,350 (including manuals, residential weekends)
Validated places	Full time – 60 Part time – 48
Enrolled nos	Full time – 66 Part time Year 1 – 55 Part time Year 2 – 45
Course length	Full time – 36 weeks Part time – 36 weeks over two years (Monday 6-9 pm, Wednesday 2-9pm)
Foundation course	Two weeks (Business Law and Practice front loading Year 2)
Electives offered	Employment Law, Personal Injury, The Elderly Client, Business Leases, Residential Tenancies, Immigration Law, Matrimonial Law, Intellectual Property Law, Commercial Dispute Resolution
Delivery methods	Mixture of small group workshops and one-and-a-half-hour, whole-cohort class sessions
Class size	Whole cohort (separate part time and full time) for lectures, and 12 for workshops
Staffing	Meets Law Society staff-student ratio of 1:12.5 One full-time course administrator
Disabled access	Good lifts available
Catering	Vending facilities, student refectory and student common room
Website	www.uclan.ac.uk

Contact

Lynne Livesey

John Houghton

Tel

01772 893087

01772 893082

E-mail

LMlivesey@uclan.ac.uk

JKHoughton@uclan.ac.uk