

University of Plymouth

Legal Practice Course provider institutional profile

Please note: The information contained in this institutional profile is supplied by the University of Plymouth; it is not endorsed by the Solicitors Regulation Authority (SRA).

General information

Plymouth Law School recently took over the Legal Practice Course (LPC) course from the University of Exeter. Since then it has been awarded 4 out of the 6 top Law Society ratings. Its main teaching activities are the delivery of the LPC, the Graduate Diploma in Law and also the LLB Law programme.

Course fee	2006/2007 – £6,950 2007/2008 - £7,250 Both fees are including manuals
Validated places	Full time – 120
Enrolled nos	2006/2007 - 49
Course length	33 weeks
Foundation course	Three weeks
Electives offered	Private Acquisitions Commercial Law Commercial Leases Family Law Insurance Law & Practice Employment Law Housing and Welfare Law Private Client
Class size	Whole group for lectures and approx 12 for workshops
Staffing	Academic staff: eight full time. One support staff
Delivery methods	Mixture of mostly one hour large group sessions and two hour workshops
Disabled access	Many buildings on the Plymouth campus have good disabled access and all rooms in the Cookworthy building are fully accessible for the disabled.
Catering	Refreshments are available throughout the campus. In the Cookworthy building there is a dedicated refectory offering drinks, snacks and meals.
Website	www.plymouth.ac.uk/law

Contact

Marketing and Admissions Office

Telephone

01752 232864

E-mail

ssb.graduateoffice@plymouth.ac.uk