

Please note the following

The SRA Training Regulations changed on 1 July 2014.

If you commenced your training prior to 1 July 2014, and will be qualifying under the 2011 Training Regulations, this document still provides necessary guidance for you. Please read it carefully.

If you commenced your training on or after 1 July 2014, or if you commenced your training prior to 1 July 2014, but are intending to transfer over to the Training Regulations 2014, this document will not be relevant to you. Instead, you should refer to the relevant sections of the SRA website for a Period of recognised training.

There are a number of Questions & Answers for Trainees that will support those who will qualify under the Training Regulations 2014.

Training trainee solicitors

Application to recognise experience outside of a training contract (time to count)

Authorisation

April 2013

The Solicitors Regulation Authority (SRA) was established by the Law Society in January 2007 to regulate solicitors admitted in England and Wales (E & W). It is independent and regulates in the public interest. The SRA deals with all regulatory and disciplinary matters. We set, monitor and enforce standards for solicitors admitted in E & W.

Applications are considered by the organisation offering the training contract. The application should be completed by the trainee/prospective trainee and signed by the supervisor at the organisation where the experience was gained.

Section 1 – 4 are to be retained by the training establishment, and section 5 is to be returned to the SRA.

Time to count will only be granted for experience that is equivalent to that gained in a training contract and is within three years immediately prior to the start of the training contract. Time awarded must not be less than one month (30 days) and no more than six months (183 days). Recognition of previous experience can be awarded on a like-for-like basis, for example 6 months previous experience allows a reduction of 6 months in the training contract.

Sections 1 and 2 to be completed by the trainee/prospective trainee.

If you need any assistance completing this form, please call the Contact Centre. For our telephone numbers and opening hours, please visit www.sra.org.uk/contact-us.
