Warning: Document misusing the name of Amjad Elias Salfiti

23 September 2025

A document is falsely claiming to be from Amjad Elias Salfiti purporting be a 'Letter of Authority' to allow asylum fingerprinting procedures.

What is the scam?

A document is falsely claiming to be from Amjad Elias Salfiti purporting be a 'Letter of Authority' to allow asylum fingerprinting procedures.

The SRA have seen a document falsely claiming to be from a genuine solicitor (see below) purporting be a 'Letter of Authority' to 'allow and approve the asylum fingerprinting procedures within British territory' and follow legal procedures to obtain and approve residency in the UK.

The document provided an email address of 'lawyeramjadalias@outlook.com', a mobile number of '+447956036216' and an office address based in 'High Holborn Greater London'.

Any business or transaction through the email address 'lawyeramjadalias@outlook.com' and telephone number '+447956036216' is not undertaken by a firm or individual authorised and regulated by the SRA.

Is there a genuine firm or person?

The SRA authorises and regulates a genuine solicitor called Amjad Elias Salfiti.

Amjad Elias Salfiti has confirmed that he does not have any connection to the document referred to in the above alert or any of the contact details provided.

What should I do?

When a firm's or individual's identity has been copied exactly (or cloned), due diligence is necessary. If you receive correspondence claiming to be from the above firm(s) or individual(s), or information of a similar nature to that described, you should conduct your own due diligence by checking the authenticity of the correspondence by contacting the law firm directly by reliable and established means. You can contact the SRA to find out if individuals or firms are regulated and authorised by the SRA and verify an individual's or firm's practising details. Other verification methods, such as checking public records (e.g. telephone directories and company records) may be required in other circumstances.
