Reasons/basis

This notification relates to a Decision to prosecute before the Solicitors Disciplinary Tribunal. This is an independent Tribunal which will reach its own decision after considering all the evidence, including any evidence put forward by the Solicitor. The Tribunal has certified that there is a case to answer in respect of allegations which are or include that :-

Whilst acting as self-employed advocate, provided misleading information to his instructing solicitors by creating an attendance note which gave inaccurate and misleading information.

The allegations are subject to a Hearing before the Solicitors Disciplinary Tribunal and are as yet unproven.
