This outcome was reached by agreement.

Reasons/basis

IN THE MATTER OF Martin Landman, a person who is or was involved in legal practice but is not a solicitor

The Facts:

Mr Landman was a manager at Notable Services LLP, Finchley Road, London NW3, from 24 February 2009 until 26 June 2012.

During his employment the firm accepted 100m euro into its client account without there being sufficient underlying legal transactions.

On 6 October 2017 the High Court issued a judgment in which it ordered Mr Landman to pay £173,000.

Mr Landman agrees that his conduct is such that he should not be involved in a legal practice in any of the ways described in a section 43 order agreed with the SRA.
