

Apprenticeships: what law firms need to know

19 April 2021

Is your law firm interested in taking on an apprentice solicitor? We are running a free webinar giving practical advice and information on what it could mean for your firm and how to go about it. Alongside the SRA, hear from the Government's Education and Skills Agency and law firms, and learn about:

- the practicalities of taking on an apprentice including who and how to apply
- the financial support and help available from the government
- how hiring an apprentice can benefit your business
- where the new Solicitors Qualifying Examination fits in with apprenticeships
