The SRA Transparency Rules came into effect on 6 December 2018. They require all firms authorised and regulated by the SRA to display specified information on their websites if they provide certain types of legal services.

The purpose of the Transparency Rules is to ensure people have accurate and relevant information about a solicitor or firm when they are considering purchasing legal services. They are intended to help members of the public and small businesses make informed choices, improving competition in the legal market.

Achom and Partners Limited SRA ID 634224 has failed to publish the following mandatory information on its website:

- its complaints procedure, including how and when a complaint can be made to the Legal Ombudsman and to the SRA
- its SRA number and the SRA's digital badge in breach of rules 2.1 and 4.1 of the Transparency Rules.

The firm failed to remedy these breaches after being given notice and reasonable time in which to do so.
