Outcome details

This outcome was reached by SRA decision.

Decision details

An order pursuant to section 43(2) of the Solicitors Act 1974 was imposed as Mr Sharma's conduct meant that it was undesirable for him to be involved in a legal practice without the SRA's prior approval. The order pursuant to section 43 was made effective 28 days after the date of the letter or email notifying Mr Sharma of this decision.

Mr Sharma's conduct was serious because the court found his conduct to be dishonest. Honesty is required from all those involved in the provision of legal services and Mr Sharma has proved that he can act without this.

Mr Sharma was also ordered to pay a proportion of the SRA's costs of £600

Reasons/basis

Vishal Sharma whose last known address was in Halewood, Liverpool

A person who is or was involved in a legal practice but is not a solicitor.

Summary of decision

The SRA has put restrictions on where and how Mr Sharma can work in an SRA regulated firm.

It was found that: Mr Sharma, who is not a solicitor, was involved in a legal practice and has occasioned or been a party to an act or default which involved such conduct on his part that it is undesirable for him to be involved in a legal practice in any of the ways described in the order below.
