PC holders (include maternity, exclude RELs and RFLs)

How much does an individual practising certificate cost?

Each practising certificate costs £278 (plus a contribution of £60 to the compensation fund) per holder.

Regulated individuals eligible for maternity discount

What is the maternity leave discount?

A maximum of £115 is discounted from the fee. The discount depends on when the maternity leave starts in the practicing year. The fee policy page has more detail on maternity leave discount [<https://www.sra.org.uk/mysra/fees/fee-policy-2019.page>].

Solicitors, RELs and RFLs qualify for the maternity leave discount (excluding an application handling fee of £48) if:

- they are on maternity leave between 1 November 2018 and 31 October 2019, or
- they are on maternity leave at the time of applying.

RELs

Have you held client money during the 2018/2019 practicing year?

Yes ▾

What is client money?

For practice in England and Wales, 'client money' is defined in rule 12 of the SRA Accounts Rules 2011 as follows:

All money held or received in the course of practice falls into one or other of the following categories:

- (a) 'client money' – money held or received for a client or as trustee, and all other money which is not office money; or
- (b) 'office money' – money which belongs to the solicitor or the practice.

For practice outside England and Wales, client money (overseas practice) is defined in the SRA Handbook Glossary 2012 as:

'...money received or held for or on behalf of a client or trust (but excluding money which is held or received by a multi-disciplinary practice - a licensed body providing a range of different services - in relation to those activities for which it is not regulated by the SRA)'.
