Outcome details

This outcome was reached by SRA decision.

Decision details

Mr Morgan’s practising certificate for 2018/2019 has been issued free from conditions.

Reasons/basis

We are satisfied that none of the purposes set out in Regulation 7 of the SRA Practising Regulations 2011 or the regulatory objectives contained in the Legal Services Act 2007 and the principles governing regulatory activities in section 28 of that Act make it necessary in the interests of the public to impose any practising certificate condition.

Decision details
Mr Andrew Morgan is subject to Regulation 3 of the SRA Practising Regulations 2011.

Mr Morgan’s practising certificate for 2017-2018 has been granted subject to the following condition which is necessary, reasonable and proportionate in the public interest:

1. Mr Morgan may not act as a manager or owner of an authorised body.

In this condition the definitions are as defined in the SRA Handbook Glossary 2012.

Reasons/basis
The above condition is considered to be necessary in the public interest and reasonable and proportionate having regard to the purposes set out in Regulation 7 of the SRA Practising Regulations 2011 and the regulatory objectives and principles governing regulatory activities as contained in section 28 of the Legal Services Act 2007.

Decision details
The suspension of Mr Andrew Howard Morgan's practising certificate for 2016/2017 is terminated subject to the following condition:

- Mr Morgan may not act as a manager or owner of an authorised body.

For definitions, please refer to the defined terms set out in the SRA Handbook Glossary 2012.

Reasons/basis
Mr Morgan was adjudged bankrupt on 11 April 2017 and his practising certificate was automatically suspended. This condition is considered to be necessary in the public interest and reasonable and proportionate having regard to the purposes set out in Regulation 7 of the SRA Practising Regulations 2011, the regulatory objectives contained in the Legal Services Act 2007 and the principles governing regulatory activities contained in Section 28 of the Act.

The above condition is imposed purely as a regulatory measure and is not intended to cast doubt on Mr Morgan's integrity, but that he is subject to regulatory controls exclusively as a result of his financial situation.
