Your views matter. We offer a wide range of ways to engage with us—from formal consultations to Twitter polls and live streaming content. A new option is joining a virtual reference group.

SRA Evolve

We recognise good user experiences are essential. That's why we need you at the heart of our work to modernise our IT and simplify what we do. SRA Evolve [<https://form.sra.org.uk/s3/sra-evolve>] is one of the ways we are making sure that users call the shots in our IT change programme.

Small firms

We want to make sure that thinking about how our work affects sole practitioners and other small firms is embedded in our operations and our regulatory reform programme.

Solicitors Qualifying Examination

[<https://www.linkedin.com/groups/8548868>]

We want to hear from anyone—academics, training providers, employers, solicitors, students, trainees and members of the public—interested in making sure that any new approach to qualification is rigorous, fair and consistent.
