

SRA Update

Issue 103 - May 2022

- General updates [#tab_2fed1]
- Compliance updates [#tab_2fed2]

Welcome to the latest SRA Update.

It's really important that we understand your views so that we can regulate as efficiently and effectively as possible. You will see we have launched two consultations this month - on our business plan for 2022/23, and on what disciplinary information we should publish. We also want to hear your insights on how we should approach regulation of pre-paid funeral plans.

We think technology and innovation could help more people access legal services more easily, while also helping your business grow. You can find out about the latest trends in innovation in the legal sector – and practical tips for firms – through our latest newsletter Lawtech Insight or at our next SRA Innovate events in Brighton and Swansea.

Have your say on our 2022/23 plans

[<https://www.sra.org.uk/sra/news/press/2022-press-releases/business-plan-consultation-2022/>]

Have your say on our plans for the coming year by taking part in our 2022-23 Business Plan consultation. As well as outlining our planned activities for the year ahead, the plan also outlines how we intend to allocate our budget and what that means for our part of the practising certificate fee, as well as Compensation Fund contributions.

Learn more about our plans

[<https://events.sra.org.uk/sra/601/home>]

You can find out more about our proposals for the Business Plan for 2022-23 in our webinar on 26 May. Tracy Vegro, Executive Director, Strategy and Innovation, and Chris Handford, Director of Policy, will be your hosts as we explore the priorities for the coming 12 months.

Do you work in-house?

[\[https://events.sra.org.uk/sra/602/home\]](https://events.sra.org.uk/sra/602/home)

We want to hear your views on the challenges and opportunities you face, and how we can respond to these as we finalise our Business Plan for the year ahead. Join our virtual roundtable on 16 June.

Views wanted on pre-paid funeral plan regulation

[\[https://www.sra.org.uk/sra/news/press/2022-press-releases/funeral-plans-discussion-paper/\]](https://www.sra.org.uk/sra/news/press/2022-press-releases/funeral-plans-discussion-paper/)

Due to changes in legalisation from 29 July, we need to consider the best way of making sure law firms involved in arranging pre-paid funeral plans are complying with new regulatory requirements. If you are involved – or interested - in this work, please read our short discussion paper outlining the issues and let us know what you think.

Feedback on what disciplinary details are published

[\[https://www.sra.org.uk/sra/news/press/2022-press-releases/publication-policy-principles-consultation/\]](https://www.sra.org.uk/sra/news/press/2022-press-releases/publication-policy-principles-consultation/)

We publish details on the disciplinary and regulatory action we take against solicitors so that, where appropriate, the public and employers can find out about any misconduct or concerns. It's been over a decade since we established the principles of our current approach, so we are consulting to make sure our approach is fair and proportionate.

Have your say on our proposed new rules on wellbeing in the workplace [<https://www.sra.org.uk/sra/news/press/2022-press-releases/wellbeing-consultation/>]

Find out more and have your say on our proposed rule changes on wellbeing. They would reinforce our powers to deal with risks to the public which stem from a poor work culture in law firms. The proposals also seek to clarify our approach to situations where a solicitor's health issues affect their ability to practise, or to participate in our enforcement processes.

Client confidentiality and the Legal Ombudsman

[<https://www.sra.org.uk/solicitors/guidance/confidentiality-client-information/>]

We have updated our guidance on client confidentiality after the Legal Ombudsman found their investigations into poor service made by third parties were hampered by a lack of disclosure. Our guidance outlines how the Ombudsman can obtain information even if clients do not give consent.

Solicitors' duties in Advocates Graduated Fee Scheme matters

[<https://www.sra.org.uk/sra/news/sra-update-102-bar-strike/>]

Criminal Bar Association members voted to adopt no returns in relation to its Advocates Graduated Fee Scheme, as of 11 April. That means that in certain situations, your client risks being unrepresented at a hearing. You have certain duties if this happens to you and your client.
