This notification relates to a Decision to prosecute before the Solicitors Disciplinary Tribunal. The Tribunal has certified that there is a case to answer in respect of allegations which are or include that he:-

1. Purported to serve medical reports when he knew or should have known no such report existed at the time.
2. Caused or permitted the date of the examination and/or the date of medical report to be altered.
3. Sought to mislead the defendants by seeking to rely on altered medical reports.
4. Served Particulars of Claim which referred to a medical report which created the impression that a medical report was in existence when he knew/or should have known that no such medical report existed.

The allegations are subject to a Hearing before the Solicitors Disciplinary Tribunal and are yet unproven.
