Outcome details

This outcome was reached by SRA decision.

Decision details

Simon Peacock's practising certificate for 2023/2024 has been issued free from conditions.

Reasons/basis

The SRA is satisfied that none of the purposes set out in regulation 7 of the SRA Authorisation of Individuals Regulations, or the regulatory objectives contained in the Legal Services Act 2007 and the principles governing regulatory activities in section 28 of that Act, make it necessary in the interests of the public to impose any practising certificate conditions.

Decision details

Simon Crosby Peacock's practising certificate for 2022/2023 has been granted subject to the following conditions:

1. Mr Peacock is not a manager or owner of any authorised body.
2. Subject to condition 1, Mr Peacock may act as a solicitor, only as an employee, where the role has first been approved by us.
3. Mr Peacock may not act as a compliance officer for legal practice (COLP) or compliance officer for finance and administration (COFA) for any authorised body.
4. Mr Peacock does not hold or receive client money, or act as a signatory to any client or office account or have the power to authorise transfers from any client or office account.

In these conditions the terms are as defined in the SRA Glossary.

Reasons/basis

The above conditions are necessary in the public interest and reasonable and proportionate having regard to the purposes set out in regulation 7 of the SRA Authorisation of Individuals Regulations, and the regulatory objectives and principles governing regulatory activities as contained in section 28 of the Legal Services Act 2007.
