

SQE - how qualifying as a solicitor is changing

17 June 2021

Have you heard about the Solicitors Qualifying Examination (SQE)? This is the new single, rigorous assessment for all aspiring solicitors – marking a step change in how people train and enter the profession.

We're running a free webinar for local law society members to get the details on the SQE and wider qualification changes from this September. Join us to find out about:

- SQE assessments – what they test and how
- Qualifying work experience
- Opportunities for law firms and employers
- SQE assessment website
- Assessment timings and booking process
- Transition arrangements for existing trainees and students.

Download slides as PPT (PPT 13 pages, 511KB)

[<https://www.sra.org.uk/globalassets/documents/sra/news/events/2021/sqe---how-qualifying-as-a-solicitor-is-changing.pptx?version=49dbac>]

Download slides as PDF (PDF 13 pages, 244KB)

[<https://www.sra.org.uk/globalassets/documents/sra/news/events/2021/sqe---how-qualifying-as-a-solicitor-is-changing.pdf?version=49dbac>]