

Regulation and Education policy

Part of what we do at the SRA is to develop policy and regulation that:

- Gives solicitors more flexibility and make it easy to provide flexible services
- Encourages the provision of flexible, accessible and affordable services for the public
- Protects the public and helps them to understand what the protections are
- Makes sure individuals have the right skills when they enter the profession
- Makes sure that individuals work to clear ethical standards and deliver a proper standard work