

Alerts

Warning: Email misusing the name Solicitors Regulation Authority

12 October 2022

Emails from lawyersdeligence@sra.org.uk are not genuine emails from the Solicitors Regulation Authority.

What is the scam?

An email purporting to be from the Solicitors Regulation Authority has been sent from the email address lawyersdeligence@sra.org.uk. The email is not genuine and uses a common obfuscation technique to disguise itself as an email (spoofing) from the SRA.

The firm name and office address is also incorrectly listed as:
Solicitors Regulatory Authority
12 Endeavour Square
E20 UN

The email invites the recipient to open an attachment and respond. If you receive an email message from lawyersdeligence@sra.org.uk, do not open the attachments. Delete the email message.

Is there a genuine firm or person?

For important information about how the Solicitors Regulation Authority uses email, please visit Email from us [<https://www.sra.org.uk/home/contact-us/receiving-emails-from-us/>] .

What should I do?

If you receive an email from lawyersdeligence@sra.org.uk, do not click on links or attachments in the email. Delete the email.