

Information for trade creditors

An intervention closes the firm.

We cannot assume any liability or obligation for trade debts relating to a firm that we regulate. Managers of an authorised body, or a recognised sole practice are responsible for all trade debts.

You should consider seeking independent legal advice if you are finding it difficult to get payment. You might also want to talk to your insurer to see if you are covered for the loss.