

Compliance News e-newsletter

Compliance News is our e-newsletter for compliance officers. COLPs and COFAs are emailed the newsletter automatically.

If you are not a compliance officer but wish to receive it, please email us to inform us that you wish to be added to our mailing list [<mailto:compliancenes@sra.org.uk?subject=I wish to subscribe to Compliance News>].

To help ensure you receive Compliance News, please add the following email address to your list of contacts or safe senders: compliancenes@sra.org.uk.

For more about how to ensure you receive our email communications, see Staying in touch with the SRA by email [/home/contact-us/receiving-emails-from-us/].

Issues

Issue 35 - November 2019 [/solicitors/resources/colp-cofa/resources/compliance-news/issue-35-november-2019/]

Featuring: Standards and Regulations – effective 25 November, Solicitors Register – make sure your details are right, Clickable logo - update, Conference resources, Latest Risk Outlook published, AML checks show risk assessments lack quality, Have you been unable to renew your professional indemnity insurance?, Solicitors Indemnity Fund – cover after run-off

Issue 34 - October 2019 [/solicitors/resources/colp-cofa/resources/compliance-news/issue-34--october-2019/]

Featuring: Watch our Compliance Conference online!, Standards and Regulations – four weeks to go, Have you been unable to renew your professional indemnity insurance?, Solicitors Indemnity Fund – cover after run-off, Brexit and keeping information safe, Corporate Strategy, help shape our work, Play your part in helping others

Issue 33 - September 2019 [/solicitors/resources/colp-cofa/resources/compliance-news/issue-33-september-2019/]

Featuring: Standards and Regulations support materials, Book your free place at our Compliance Conference, Make sure your firm is prepared for Brexit, Flagging up money laundering concerns, Consultation on advocacy opens, SRA on stage at London Law Expo, Testing the SQE

Issue 32 - June 2019 [/solicitors/resources/colp-cofa/resources/compliance-news/issue-32--june-2019/]

Featuring: Checks on Transparency Rules finds more to do, Compensation Fund contributions down, and PC fees suggested to stay the same, AML firm review finds serious concerns, Save the date as we head back to the ICC for one of the largest events in the legal calendar, Report your firm's diversity data now, Change to Ethics Helpline opening hours, Ombudsman publishes guidance on costs

Issue 31 - March 2019 [/solicitors/resources/colp-

cofa/resources/compliance-news/issue-31---march-2019/

Featuring: Money-laundering checks, Standards and Regulations launch, Non-disclosure agreements and workplace sexual harassment, Save the date for the 2019 Compliance Officer Conference, Change to Ethics Helpline opening hours, Legal Ombudsman training – Remedies and learning from complaints, Visit us at Legalex this week

[Issue 30 - February 2019 \[solicitors/resources/colp-cofa/resources/compliance-news/issue-30---february-2019/\]](#)

Featuring: Compliance News – have your say!, Our new Enforcement Strategy, and when you should report, Enforcement in Practice – topic guides on key issues, Price and services transparency - are you up to date?, Save the date as we head back to the ICC for one of the largest events in the legal calendar, Debt recovery work scam warning, Making sure you are tackling money laundering - complying with the money-laundering regulations, Change to Ethics Helpline opening hours, Events – LegalEx

[Issue 29 - November 2018 \[solicitors/resources/colp-cofa/resources/compliance-news/issue-29---november-2018/\]](#)

Featuring: Price transparency, Conference 2018 – secure your place!, Financial services, OPBAS review, No-deal Brexit, SQE launch and cost, Continuing competence survey, Events – LegalEx